Robot Consulting Co., Ltd. (Head office: Chuo-ku, Tokyo. CEO: Akihito Usui. Hereinafter "Robot Consulting"), a software developer using AI technology, is pleased to announce that Kazuhiro Terai, a lawyer who previously served as president of Houterasu (Japan Legal Support Center), has been appointed as an outside director of Robot Consulting.

Robot Consulting will provide "Lawyer Robot", an AI digital law service, for people who have a difficult image to make consultation with lawyers more accessible, and at the same time, to improve the business efficiency of law firms.

With the appointment of lawyer Terai as an outside director, we will also create an opportunity to further develop digital lawyer services for the virtual space and to provide access to justice for all people as stated in SDGs Goal 16. We also intend to work closely with Houterasu.

■Comment from Kazuhiro Terai

It is a great honor and a new challenge for me to have the opportunity to join Robot Consulting as an outside director, a company with a high aspiration to "change the way of justice in Japan for the benefit of citizens". I am looking forward to working with everyone at the company to make my past judicial duties more efficient and to contribute to the future growth of the company from various angles and to enhance its corporate value.

■Kazuhiro Terai Profile

Kazuhiro Terai was admitted to the bar in 1970, became an executive director of the Japan Federation of Bar Associations in 1989, and vice president of the Tokyo Bar Association in 1995. In 1996, he became the chairman of the Criminal Defense Law Center of the Japan

Federation of Bar Associations. In April 2008, he became executive director of the Japan Legal Support Center (JLSC) and then president of the JLSC.
